Dear Sir/Madam,

This is to inform you that the University has allowed introducing Sanskrit (Honours) on self-financing basis from the academic session 2017-18, subject to approval of the Executive Council and fulfillment of the conditions as stated below:

- I. The College shall engage at least two guest teachers in Sanskrit before the commencement of classes.
- II. The College shall procure at least 250 text books in the subject covering at least 50 titles and necessary reference books in consonance with the syllabus of the subject before the commencement of classes for the academic session 2017-18.
- III. The maximum intake in Sanskrit (Honours) shall be 30 students.
- IV. The introduction of Sanskrit (Honours) shall be purely on self-financing basis and no additional financial implication should come on Higher Education Department because of this sanction.
- V. The authority of the college will made necessary arrangements from its own resources for providing instructional and infrastructural facilities for introduction Sanskrit (Honours) from the academic session 2017-18.
- VI. Engagement of required number of faulty members and/or guest faculty is to be arranged by the college and the expenditure required for the purpose is to be borne by the college out of its own resources.
- VII. The college shall furnish a declaration for giving strict adherence to the conditions as laid down at items IV to VI to the office of the Inspector of Colleges before 1st August 2017.

Yours sincerely,

(Dr. S. Sanyal)
Inspector of Colleges
